UNDERSTANDING THE RATINGS

Our levels follow the Padel Australia Player Rating Guide. You don't need an official rating, just pick the description closest to how you play now.

BEGINNER
Padel Australia 1.0 – 1.5

New to padel, or only a handful of games in.

You belong here if: You're still learning the game and developing the basic skills needed to comfortably play a match.

BEGINNER +
Padel Australia 1.5 – 2.0

Past your first few games and you understand how padel is played.

You belong here if: You understand the game and can play points and short rallies, but you're still developing consistency, positioning and confidence.

BEGINNER ++
Padel Australia 2.0 – 2.5

A regular player becoming comfortable in full matches.

You belong here if: You can comfortably play a full match and maintain rallies, but you're still developing accuracy, shot selection, glass play and consistency at higher speeds.

INTERMEDIATE
Padel Australia 3.0 – 3.5

An established player, confident and consistent at medium pace.

You belong here if: You're comfortable in all areas of the court, understand positioning and basic tactics, and can consistently compete with other experienced club players.

INTERMEDIATE ADVANCED
Padel Australia 3.5 – 4.0

A strong, experienced club player who holds up at a faster pace.

You belong here if: You're a strong intermediate player who can compete consistently at higher speeds, construct points tactically and use a broad range of attacking and defensive shots.
